VOLUNTEER & COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES FOR RETIREES (& others!)

“NOW THAT I’M FINALLY RETIRED . . . “

We spend a lot of time thinking about our retirement, but when the time comes, many of us aren’t ready to completely exit the workforce when we still have more to give.

The good news is there are many opportunities to volunteer for an organization in our area that aligns with your cultural, civic and humanitarian interests. Volunteer opportunities come in all shapes and sizes, depending on whether you are looking for a long-term commitment to throw yourself into, or a few short-term “gigs.” You can use what you already know or try something completely different!

Our mission is to give you a sample of what’s out there. Hear from organizations, volunteer coordinators, people who find fulfillment doing volunteer work, and even people who have started post-retirement small businesses that provide needed services.

Last year’s events were fun and eye-opening for everyone – including us! Please join us for the first of 2018’s events – and bring a friend! There are still so many organizations who want to meet you!
